My first visit to a chiropractor has made me a believer. I walked in in so much pain and when I left it was 50% better. The next morning it felt 80% better. So thankful for Dr. Keegan and his awesome staff.

I felt like the doctor, Mr. Keegan was very professional, great with my children, and a well-seasoned chiropractor. I would recommend him to anyone who may be in need of a chiropractor. I very much desired to give this business 5 stars, but I couldn't because I had a bad experience with the office staff which are two women. They could have just been both having a bad day, on our first visit and I hope so, because first, I felt disrespected because I was in the back room waiting on my daughter to finish getting some electric-therapy with her having little pads on her back connected to a machine for 10 minutes, while I was playing and coloring with my two toddler boys. My two year old tapped a bell that was by the bed that we were using as a table to color on and I got him to stop and told him not to do it anymore, but one of the women still came in there and instead of asking me to please have him not ring the bell again, she loudly and irritatingly said ALRIIGHT, LET ME HAVE THE BELL, while taking it, like I was some child, who did not need to be addressed, personally about controlling the issue. Then, when, I was paying for my daughter's bill, the same woman actually asked me if I had a babysitter for my personal appointment in a few days. At first, I thought she was joking around about her or someone she knew babysitting for me on Friday evening, because she liked my children, since we had already been out in the waiting room and they were starting to play which made me assume she had a moment to see how cute they were when they played, but to my surprise, I realized how rude she was trying to be by acting like she was an old woman who hated being around children, didn't believe I was competent enough to know I needed to not bring my children with me if I have an appointment that is for myself and I don't have my husband with me to watch them. In a surmised voice, I replied, yes, I do have someone to watch my children, because my husband will have the day off that day. Directly after that, my children wanted to play in the waiting room for a moment, because they didn't get the chance to when we arrived, since they were ready for us to go back right away, and although we have lots of toys at home, there were so many toys, there that my children had never played with. After a few minutes, the younger woman in the office came into the waiting room and started trying to talk to my children and I, but she just seemed very rude, because she was pointing out how one of my sons was wearing snow boots and the other was wearing flip flops and making physical reactions as if she didn't think it was the correct weather for either. Next, the same woman was talking to my daughter about how it was supposed to snow the next day and was my daughter glad because she would be out of school, but when my daughter replied that she didn't go to public school and that we homeschool, that woman rudely and negatively replied to her, saying, Well, it's like you are at school ALL the time, then. Isn't it? To which my daughter just looked at her and didn't know what to say, so I replied and said, Or it could be more like that she is at home all of the time and just sometimes, we do schoolwork, because my daughter and I don't think negatively about homeschooling and we want to teach others that may be ignorant about it, to think more positively about it, too, because I believe it has more pros than cons and some people don't know enough about it to understand how it can have pros or more pros than contras about it. The receptionist then seemed like she may have been irritated by my reply, although I spoke nicely/calmly and was just trying to defend my daughter's hurt feelings. Almost directly after, the older woman came into the waiting room and loudly said it's time to leave, now and did a shoo'ing motion with her hands like she was trying to get rid of animals in her yard. In a surprised voice, I said to her, Oh, okay, I didn't know you guys were closing already, but she replied, Oh, we aren't, but this is an office. Then, she quickly closed the door that lead to the back and went back to her office. I felt so disrespected as a client, because I am a grown adult, who's responsible, was acting calmly speaking in a calm, respectful way to these two women, and didn't think it would be a negative action to let my children play with the toys and stuff in the children's area of the waiting room for a few moments, before we left, since they begged me because of never playing with toys like those, before, AND not to mention that I was a paying client, who just paid for my daughter's Chiropractic services. I will make sure when my children are with me in the future, to come early, to let them play and them playing, while I'm waiting should give me a valid enough reason for them to be able to play in a waiting room containing children's items.

I had not been to Dr. Keegan's practice in far too long (over a year), and was suffering some significant lower back pain. I have chronic lower back pain from an injury suffered years ago. It's been 24 hours since my visit, and I can't begin to describe how much better I feel. Absolutely no lower back pain today. I'm amazed at how much better I feel after one visit. I'm now scheduling monthly maintenance appointments so I don't fall back into the chronic pain issue again.

We met Dr. Keegan yesterday when I took my 14 year old son in for treatment . My son is a baseball player/pitcher and has been experiencing elbow pain that we've come to find out is probably being caused by issues with his neck, shoulders and back. Chiropractic is one of the avenues we are using to help him heal. Dr. Keegan took the time to explain the different therapies he is using, what the purpose is and what he hopes it will accomplish, all with a great sense of humor. We will be back, thank you!

I liked the way Dr. Keegan took the time to explain all of the procedures and discussed what was in the xrays. I would have preferred to have heard from the receptionist what the estimated cost of the service was for the first visit. I'm concerned that my insurance won't cover much and I would like to know the amount of the bill before I receive it in the mail. I also would like to know what the cost is for follow-on visits too. A bit more information on this would be helpful and appreciated. Otherwise my first visit was very pleasant.

At the urging of a friend at my job, I decided to make an appointment with Keegan Chiropractic. That was the best decision I could have made! The office manager was able to get me in quickly. Dr. Keegan reviewed my Xrays, discussed them with me, and decided on a course of action. Some of these actions included manipulation and massage therapy and I made a hasty recovery. He and his friendly staff take the time to sincerely check each patient's progress during and after the appointment & make you feel like part of the team. When they found out that I was moving, they even tried to find a practice near where I lived who provided the same services they provide. Can't say enough good things.

Dr. Keegan was very nice and very thorough. He was a bit rushed at times as he is the only clinical provider in the practice. Equipment a bit old, but overhead can be painfully expensive. Sadly, after my second adjustment I found that approx 12 hours later I could barely move! Called, but being Christmas week there was NO ONE on call for emergencies. 4 days later, say a traveling Chiro who was standing in for Dr. Keegan. Interesting/strange experience. The pain is gone 1 week later. They have very nice fish!

The chiropractic experience was much different than I had envisioned. I really can't comment on its effectiveness just yet, as I've only had 1 visit and I'm still under his care. Terry was great and my massage was wonderful. Eileen was not very friendly at all yesterday and made me feel uncomfortable. I am not sure what it was or maybe because I hadn't been there for a while, but she was almost rude. I know it was the end of the day or maybe she had a bad day, but don't know if I am going to come back now..Sorry because I really like Dr. K and Terry.

Well worth the drive! Got stuck in traffic but Dr Keegan still worked me in!! NOT many doctors do that these days. I have seen chiropractors in the past, and was not impressed by stateside chiropractors. Best chiro I've experience was in Germany---UNTIL Dr Keegan!! Dr Keegan helped me immensely--very professional, great office! Great experience! Great results!!

I have never felt better in my life! After years of going to physical therapy, pain management specialists, counseling, and other chiropractic providers--I am convinced. This practice offers nothing less than the best care out there. Thus, from the moment, you walk through the door until after your session has ended you are treated with the utmost dignity and respect, in an enviroment that is positive, clean, and professional. I'm so pleased that I switched to this doctor. In fact, if you are on the fence about the benefits of chiropractic care, please don't spend any more time going to places and practitioners who don't treat you as a whole person or make you happy with their services. Life is too short for that. Besides, you deserve to feel better and gain increased mobility from a team who can get the job done. Well done!.

Dr. Keegan is a fantastic chiropractor and physician! I travel all over the world, and out of literally hundreds of chiropractors in hundreds of cities, he's in the top three, if not the best of them all. He's very skilled at adjusting and his advice for long term care is spot on. Given how much time I spend carrying bags, sitting in economy, and sleeping in hotel beds, I'm very fortunate to have stumbled upon Dr. Keegan's practice.

We were looking for a new chiropractor as ours was no longer available. I brought my teenage daughter with me so that we could both see if this would be the right "fit" for us. The welcoming atmosphere as well as the focus on sports related chiropractics is a hit! Looking forward to going back!

My experience was very positive as I had been in a lot of pain for 7 months and I now feel that I had a good review and xray. The professional manner is very important to me and I appreciate the efficiency and care that was given. Dr. Keegan is a great professional. His staff gave good directions and were patient with me.

I'm a bit disappointed that you gave me a $25 dollar certificate for my birthday. and when I called about it you said it would be applied to my account. Then when I came in you took it back and said it was expired. Treatment was great as usual.

I came to this practice due to a judgement by my previous chiropractor. He could not understand why someone my age would do TKD. Not that is was any of his business, it did help me with stress reduction. I met Dr Keegan in that TKD class and started seeing him. His office staff is very personable and I never have a problem getting in to see him. He has helped me with multiple issues. The big ones were rehabing from total knee replacement. The Saturday office hours are awesome. Terry is the best at what he does as far as I'm concerned. Thank you Dr Keegan, Terry and staff.

I recently experienced a pinched sciatic nerve and Shawn and Terry worked on me to help relieve the pain and increase my mobility. Without the use of any drugs, they were able to lessen the pain until it became necessary to visit the emergency room for medications to better address the issue. I truly appreciate their efforts and the careful attention to detail both Shawn and Terry employed. Thanks, gentlemen.
